

AT THE SEASIDE.

The Fire Zouaves at Atlantic City—A Grand Review by General Meade, and a Grand Ball at the United States Hotel.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 3. The season at Atlantic City gradually approaches the close of brilliancy. Yesterday never was it more animated; than last night never was it more gay.

General Meade, after taking a ride along the beach, was escorted to the parlors of the United States Hotel, and at 2 o'clock he was honored with a formal reception, conducted under the auspices of Major S. B. Wylie Mitchell, Surgeon Major Kizer, Major Carlstars, Captain R. W. Shields, and other officers of the Fire Zouaves.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Revision of the Rules of the Democratic Party of the City of Philadelphia. At noon to-day, pursuant to an adjournment, the Convention called to revise the Rules of the Democratic party of the City of Philadelphia, met at the Headquarters, at Ninth and Arch streets.

Rule V. There shall be a separate convention held for the nomination of candidates for city or county office; and no more than one such candidate shall be nominated by any one convention, except the candidates for the office of Judge of the Courts.

Rule VI. Each ward shall be entitled to representation in said convention for nominating city and county candidates and judicial conventions, as follows: One delegate for every 500 Democratic voters in said ward, and one for a fraction of 500 over 400.

Rule VII. The City Executive Committee shall organize on the 1st day of June, 1870, and thereafter triennially, determine, declare, and publish the number of representatives each ward is entitled to give to said convention for nominating candidates for city and county offices and judicial conventions upon the ratio set forth in Rule XVI, taking as the basis for calculation the official ratio in each ward.

Rule VIII. When the conventions provided for by these rules, or any of them, are duly organized and proceed to elect delegates and nominate candidates, the voting for delegates or candidates shall be done in the following manner, and in no other, viz:—The name of each delegate shall be called by the secretary, and the delegate so called shall rise from his place, come to the front of the delegates or candidates for whom he votes; whereupon the secretary shall report the same in the minutes, and the President of the convention shall announce the name of the delegate voting, and the person or persons for whom he so voted, and in like manner shall each vote be taken.

Rule IX. The City Executive Committee shall organize on the 1st day of June, 1870, and thereafter triennially, determine, declare, and publish the number of representatives each ward is entitled to give to said convention for nominating candidates for city and county offices and judicial conventions upon the ratio set forth in Rule XVI, taking as the basis for calculation the official ratio in each ward.

Rule X. The City Executive Committee shall organize on the 1st day of June, 1870, and thereafter triennially, determine, declare, and publish the number of representatives each ward is entitled to give to said convention for nominating candidates for city and county offices and judicial conventions upon the ratio set forth in Rule XVI, taking as the basis for calculation the official ratio in each ward.

Rule XI. The City Executive Committee shall organize on the 1st day of June, 1870, and thereafter triennially, determine, declare, and publish the number of representatives each ward is entitled to give to said convention for nominating candidates for city and county offices and judicial conventions upon the ratio set forth in Rule XVI, taking as the basis for calculation the official ratio in each ward.

THIRD EDITION.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Leaders of the Filibusters Anxious to Get Back to New York—Fairs at Port-au-Prince—The New York Markets.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Leaders of the Filibusters Want to Come Home. Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. New York, August 3.—United States Marshal Barlow has received a joint letter from Colonels Ryan and Currier, dated Niagara Falls, on the Canada side, asking the Marshal's permission to return to New York city on their giving their parole to appear for examination or trial, and to hereafter refrain from committing further violations of the neutrality law.

Some days since Marshal Barlow had a similar application made to him personally by Colonel Boeare on behalf of Colonel Ryan. Marshal Barlow says that the requests of the Colonel cannot be complied with, as neither of them is on the footing of the men just liberated from Fort Lafayette, none of whom had, as far as known, either forfeited their bonds to appear for examination or trial, or to refrain from violating the neutrality laws, whereas both Colonels Ryan and Currier had given forfeited and violated bonds for those purposes.

The Stock and Money Markets To-day. Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. New York, Aug. 3.—The stock market is strong, with an advance of 1/2 per cent. on North-western common and preferred, and also an advance of 1/2 on St. Paul. The earnings of the Northwestern Company at present give good grounds for believing that at least $15,000,000 will be earned this year, and the floating stock has all been absorbed by strong parties.

New York Produce Market. NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Cotton quiet; 200 bales sold at 22 1/2c. Flour quiet and unchanged; sales of 6000 barrels of No. 2 at 81c; white State, 81 1/2c; Corn dull and declined; sales of 35,000 bushels mixed Western at 110c; oats heavy; sales of 10,000 bushels at 32c; Beet quiet. Pork quiet; new Mess, 33 1/2c; Lard nominal. Whisk quiet at 41c.

Naval Orders. Despatch to The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Commander T. S. Pillsbury has been ordered to duty as member of the board in session at the Navy Department for the examination of officers for promotion. Ensigns Edward M. Day and T. B. M. Mason have been ordered to the European Squadron.

Yellow Fever on Shipboard. HALIFAX, Aug. 3.—Eighteen deaths from yellow fever occurred on board the man-of-war Eclipse, on her passage from Rio Grande to Halifax. Among the victims were the commander and first lieutenant. Another ship, the Barracouta, arrived to-day with the fever on board.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

DISASTER.

The Great Explosion at the Haycock Colliery—A Loss of Forty Lives.

An English paper, just received, contains the following:—On the morning of the 21st ult., about 11 o'clock, another terrible explosion occurred in the Haycock colliery, near St. Helens, the scene of the explosion in December last, when some twenty-six lives were sacrificed.

FROM EUROPE.

Terrible Accident in the Saxon Coal Mines. By Atlantic Cable. DRESDEN, Aug. 3.—A dreadful accident occurred yesterday in the coal mines in the mountain districts near this city. Over three hundred were killed outright. No particulars are given, but the accident is said to have been attributable to stormy weather.

A Schleswig-Holstein Canal Proposed. BERLIN, Aug. 3.—The preliminary surveys for a ship canal through Schleswig-Holstein to connect the Baltic and North Seas have been completed. It is thought the Prussian government will undertake the work.

Gloomy State of Affairs in Spain. LONDON, Aug. 3.—The coming international boat race between the Harvard and Oxford crews, is still a matter of great interest. The press of London generally comment unfavorably on the style of the Harvard crew. The News to-day has an article on the subject, wherein the writer hopes the weather will be all that either crew could desire—that the water will be smooth, the way clear, steamers distanced, and the best boat be the first to pass the winning-post.

The Captain-General of Madrid Despondent. By French Cable. MADRID, Aug. 3.—The Captain-General of Madrid has addressed a letter to the Regent Serrano and Prim, in which he says:—I took part in the revolution, hoping to see morality, law, and justice succeed to former abuses. It is now ten months since the revolution was accomplished. My hopes have been deceived, and greater abuses, widespread immorality, and deplorable anarchy prevail—disorders to which it is absolutely necessary to put an end.

Stock Quotations by Telegraph—3 P. M. GLENDING, Davis & Co. report through their New York house the following:—Pacific M. S. 81 1/2; N. Y. Central R. 97 1/2; Mil. & St. Paul R. 81 1/2; Mich. & N. L. R. 106 1/2; Mil. & St. Paul R. 81 1/2; Cle. & Pitt. R. 106 1/2; Adams Express 79 1/2; Chl. & N. W. pref. 93 1/2; Gold 136 1/2; Chl. & N. W. R. 114; Market dull.

PORTUGAL AND AMERICA. Close of Minister Harvey's Mission—Audience with the King—Address to his Majesty and Reply. The official journal of Lisbon publishes an account of the ceremonies that marked the close of Minister Harvey's mission, as representative of the United States in Portugal, on July 15. Minister Harvey, whose eight years of service terminated in this audience with the King addressed his Majesty.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

FOURTH EDITION.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

A TERRIBLE CALAMITY.

300 Persons Killed Outright in a Saxon Coal Mine.

Gloomy State of Affairs in Spain—More Clamors for an Immediate Choice of a King.

FROM EUROPE.

Terrible Accident in the Saxon Coal Mines. By Atlantic Cable. DRESDEN, Aug. 3.—A dreadful accident occurred yesterday in the coal mines in the mountain districts near this city. Over three hundred were killed outright. No particulars are given, but the accident is said to have been attributable to stormy weather.

A Schleswig-Holstein Canal Proposed. BERLIN, Aug. 3.—The preliminary surveys for a ship canal through Schleswig-Holstein to connect the Baltic and North Seas have been completed. It is thought the Prussian government will undertake the work.

Gloomy State of Affairs in Spain. LONDON, Aug. 3.—The coming international boat race between the Harvard and Oxford crews, is still a matter of great interest. The press of London generally comment unfavorably on the style of the Harvard crew. The News to-day has an article on the subject, wherein the writer hopes the weather will be all that either crew could desire—that the water will be smooth, the way clear, steamers distanced, and the best boat be the first to pass the winning-post.

The Captain-General of Madrid Despondent. By French Cable. MADRID, Aug. 3.—The Captain-General of Madrid has addressed a letter to the Regent Serrano and Prim, in which he says:—I took part in the revolution, hoping to see morality, law, and justice succeed to former abuses. It is now ten months since the revolution was accomplished. My hopes have been deceived, and greater abuses, widespread immorality, and deplorable anarchy prevail—disorders to which it is absolutely necessary to put an end.

Stock Quotations by Telegraph—3 P. M. GLENDING, Davis & Co. report through their New York house the following:—Pacific M. S. 81 1/2; N. Y. Central R. 97 1/2; Mil. & St. Paul R. 81 1/2; Mich. & N. L. R. 106 1/2; Mil. & St. Paul R. 81 1/2; Cle. & Pitt. R. 106 1/2; Adams Express 79 1/2; Chl. & N. W. pref. 93 1/2; Gold 136 1/2; Chl. & N. W. R. 114; Market dull.

PORTUGAL AND AMERICA. Close of Minister Harvey's Mission—Audience with the King—Address to his Majesty and Reply. The official journal of Lisbon publishes an account of the ceremonies that marked the close of Minister Harvey's mission, as representative of the United States in Portugal, on July 15. Minister Harvey, whose eight years of service terminated in this audience with the King addressed his Majesty.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

FIFTH EDITION.

THE LATEST NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Treasury Regulations. WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The following was today issued:—TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, August 3, 1869.—The following regulation, prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, is published for the information of officers of Internal Revenue and all others whom it may concern.

Indian Matters. General Angar returned from South Pass yesterday. Indian matters are quiet in the department. Another expedition leaves Fort Sedwick in a few days.

Drumming Accidents. A man named Plumber, living near Canton Mo., attempted to swim across a creek with his little boy on his back a day or two ago, and both were drowned. A man named Rogers attempted to save them, and he too was drowned.

Affairs in Massachusetts. Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. LYNN, Mass., Aug. 3.—J. O. Stickney, a well-known lawyer, died this morning, at the age of 70. The citizens voted yesterday not to accept the legislative act for supplying the city with pure water.

THE TEXAS FLOODS. Thrilling Incidents—Great Damage to the Crops. Our Texas exchanges continue to bring us accounts of the unprecedented devastation occasioned by the recent floods. The corn crop on all the lower bottomlands along the San Antonio river, and though the crop is generally made, it will prove damaged beyond computation.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Zouaves assembled in dress parade, on the broad plot of ground near their camp. Everybody on the island went to witness the spectacle. The press was so great—the multitude thronging upon the very ranks of the Zouaves—that they at times found some difficulty in their manœuvres.

